

Boys Basketball Freshman A Dulles

The Freshman A team got the win against Dulles High School this week in an exciting game in which the Spartans were down by 1 with 16 seconds left in the game but ultimately won 55-51. Caden Francis led the scoring with 23 points including a game winning 3-point shot with 7 seconds left in the game. Luke Hatcher had 12 points and a key steal on an inbound pass which helped sealed the win for the Spartans. Cameron Donley led the team in rebounds along with two assists, two steals and 7 points for a great all-around game on his part. The team also had strong performances by Jacob Baerg who had 7 points and 4 rebounds and Alexis Rushing who had 4 rebounds, 3 points and a strong defensive effort. The Spartans start district play on the road Tuesday (12/4) against Cy-Falls and then have a non-district game at Strake Jesuit on Friday (12/7). Both games start at 4:00.
